		Sports Day is a great celebration of the school and Science Week is great.
		The structure and independence developed in children from the word go and the opportunities to experience new things.
		The pastoral care provided by my child's teachers and the encouragement they provide.
		Smart appearance and polite behaviour is encouraged. Children who take pride in their appearance and behaviour will also take pride in their work.
		Lowbrook is an organised school. Since our child changed schools we've seen such a big difference in her progress. The teachers are outstanding and really care for the childrens' achievements.
6	The Lowbrook PTA is looking for helpers. How could you contribute to its success.	I am sorry I cannot help at the moment because I work full time
		I am happy to help in running PTA events
		At present I can't I'm afraid but always willing to support by bringing in needed items for fundraising etc.
7	Much planning and effort goes into our creative Curriculum of 8 domains. What skills or resources can you as a parent/caregiver offer to enhance these?
8	What do you value about the Lowbrook Curriculum	The broad variety of subjects to equip our children with what they need for the future.
		It's relevant. modern, reactive and open-minded. Children gain insight into many topics, fields of science and areas of interest. I like the focus on nature and the environment.
		Varied topics, interesting trips, I like the Theme weeks; Book Week and Sports Week are favourites with our child.
		Theme Weeks go above and beyond to support learning.
9	Do you think the school promotes a safe and healthy lifestyle	187 (99%)	0	2 (1%)			189
